Peer Leaders and Crew

Cultivating Creativity is the theme for the 2012-2013 school year.

Peer Leader, Kaylynne Leggett, and Ms. Terri Stanley are working their daily "desk shifts."

Crew members, Sophie Chevallier and Emily Simpson, work diligently to finish some last minute crew decorations.

Peer Leaders, Sydel Fisher, Katie Doctor, and Kaylynne Leggett, work hard to finish the Sanford 2 hall decorations.

Chelsea Bednar, Audrey Bay, McKenzie Cornish and Jessie Cobb strike a pose in the psychedelic lighting of the Halloween dance.

Peer Leaders, Annalise Senkowski and Mariah Reives, are ready to start the new school year.

Many thanks to John Mauceri, UNCSA Chancellor and good luck in your future endeavors!

Mr. Mauceri with the UNCSA fighting pickle mascot

As the Chancellor of UNCSA, John Mauceri has helped our school attain $45 million to construct four new buildings, added the word "University" to our school's name and increased opportunities for students to collaborate with renown performers in their fields.

Mr. Mauceri conducting an orchestra

John Mauceri has worn many hats during his successful career as the music director of the American Symphony Orchestra, co-producer of "On Your Toes" and a professor at Yale University. He is the Founding Director of the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra and Music Director of Walt Disney's Legacy Series Concerts.

We will miss you, Ms. Moss! Thank you for everything you have done at UNCSA!

Ms. Moss smiles a farewell!

Ms. Moss teaching the students about the Jim Crow era

Ms. Moss has taught U.S. History for twenty years at UNCSA. She has been a wonderful mentor and teacher to the high school students. She has always supported us in our dedication to the arts. Her kindness and generosity will be dearly missed.

Ms. Moss will always brighten your day with a smile and a funny historical anecdote!

Editor's Vision

We didn't want just another yearbook to put on your shelf. So, we wanted to incorporate specific things that made this year special, things that you can look back on and remember this year by. Our main focus was the popular conspiracy theory that the world was going to end Dec. 21, 2012. In case you missed it...we survived. Hence, we give you our yearbook from our hearts to yours.

Special thanks to our staff and Mr. Bo for working so hard. Also, shoutout to Burke Street Pizza for providing us with an incentive to work hard and...

Wishing you a rainbow for sunlight after showers—
Miles and miles of Irish smiles for golden happy hours—
Shamrocks at your doorway for luck and laughter, too—
And a host of friends that never ends each day your whole life through!

You've brightened our life from day one. You bring laughter and smiles to all those around you. You make us proud with your positive attitude, hard work, and talent. We look forward with happiness to your wonderful future and all God has planned for you. Love you so much, Mom & Dad

Man, this year has been good. For what I've seen of the world, I imagine that this is among the most special of places, and certainly contains some of the most special people, who make life here so worth living.
Thank you friends, thank you Mom and Dad, Joan and Wesley, and Mr. Maxner; had I been living in another possible life and learned of this one with all its various acquaintances, I surely would have perished at that instant. Or not, but something like that, I guess. I guess. Anyway, thanks everyone, I wish you all the best!

SAMSARA!

Congratulations Kaitlyn!

May you always walk in sunshine,
may your wildest dreams come true.

We are so proud of you!
